

PRESS RELEASE

For More Information Call:
NCSA (216) 631 8200
info@candyhalloffame.org

For Immediate Release
December 2014

CANDY HALL OF FAME INDUCTS 12

TAMPA, FL — During a black-tie gala held October 18, the National Confectionery Sales Association (NCSA) inducted 12 new members into the Candy Hall of Fame.

The inductees were Joe Conti, First Source, LLC; Charles Dodson, A.M. Todd, a division of Wild Flavors, Inc.; Joseph Donnelly, Trend Sales Inc.; Brian Gold, Sultana Distribution Services; Dan Gray, E.A. Berg Services; Randy Hofberger, R & D Candy Consultants; John Holland, Sollich North America, LLC; Robert Huzinec, The Hershey Co.; Steve Martinez, The Performance Group; and Stuart Selarnick, Frankford Candy, LLC.

In addition, the Association posthumously inducted milk chocolate pioneer Daniel Peter, of Peter's Chocolate, and Otto Schnering, a founder of Curtiss Candy Co.

The weekend kicked off during Friday night's welcome reception, which included the annual NCSA scholarship raffle as well as the announcement of this year's five $2,500 grant recipients. The 2014 scholarship winners were Tim Antonellis, grandson of Domenic Antonellis; Logan Fischer, son of David Fischer; Maxwell Bainbridge, grandson of Ross Bainbridge; Kayla McGuire, daughter of John McGuire; and Matthew Weiner, son of Kevin Weiner.

For more information on the Candy Hall of Fame and complete bios of this year's inductees, as well as all past honorees, visit candyhalloffame.org. For photos from the event, contact info@candyhalloffame.org.

###

The National Confectionery Sales Association, formed in 1899, is dedicated to furthering positive growth and acceptance of confectionery products, and recognizing the achievements of category leaders from all sectors of the international industry. The Candy Hall of Fame was founded in 1971, and recognizes lifetime career achievements in the confectionery industry, with induction based on dedication to the overall betterment of the industry.